

Curriculum vitae policy

Welcome to the Marley Roofing Career opportunities page. Potential Career seekers must be vibrant bold energetic and full of passion for the production environment in which we operate. If you have the ability to provide world class professional work skills and have foresight to help us grow our Roofing business, by use of your expertise kindly submit your curriculum vitae to the Human Resources Department details provided below in the following manner:

Name of Contact Person: Ronalda Pillay
Email Address : Ronalda.pillay@marley.co.za

Kindly place in the subject header of your email your specialization: Example below
Attach your CV and transmit your application e.g. “Accounting”, “Sales”, “Logistics” etc.

Our talent building approach towards acquiring staff requires that we keep your CV on our database and when ready to recruit for open vacancies contact you at that point in time.

Submission of your CV to Marley Roofing’s Human Resources Department hereby verifies that you grant consent to Marley Roofing to use your CV details for the sole purpose of recruitment.

As a contributor towards BBBEE our company’s skill Development Policy talks to being an equal opportunity employer and preference will be given to persons with disabilities and in line with the employment equity act , we also strive to partner with the community to enhance social development.

Our Human Resources Department conducts its practices from our Head Office in Johannesburg even though we have branches in Cape Town, George, Polokwane, Nelspruit, Ekandustria , Witpoortjie, Tongaat and Olifantsfontein with that means we can eliminate the duplication of your CV or application and ensure you get feedback and assistance on your career efficiently.

Our greatest assets are our people “Connect and Care “ is one of our proudest values so reach out to us today if you have what it takes to work under our roof.